The Fashion Outlets of Las Vegas, located in Primm at the Nevada/California border, recently awarded a $1,000 shopping spree to a lucky Las Vegas resident. Pictured here is Lori Ales (left), a mother of five, receiving her check from Nancy Marcellus (right), marketing director for the Fashion Outlets of Las Vegas. The shopping spree, which included a round trip limousine ride to the Fashion Outlets of Las Vegas, a one-night stay at Primm Valley Resort & Casino and dinner for two at GP's Steakhouse, is part of the mall's frequent shopper program called The Privileges Club. Since its launch in July 2007, the club has grown to more than 3,000 members. Upon joining, you'll receive The Privileges Club card that automatically rewards you with a $10 shopping certificate and 100 points. Other benefits include a Fashion Outlets of Las Vegas tote bag, free use of the daily Shopper Shuttle from Las Vegas, a Savings Book (worth up to $800 in extra savings), priority notification of promotions and entry into the quarterly shopping spree drawing. Nevada residents can join The Privileges Club for free by completing a membership application online at folv.com, visiting the customer service center or phoning 888-424-6898 to request a mail-in application. Nonresidents can also join but must pay a $10 fee.
